

Summary

Hieromonk Seraphim Rose

ORTHODOXY AND THE RELIGION OF THE FUTURE

According to the challenging Author of this study, there is a danger of relativistic, »ecumenical«, approach to the Mystery of the Una Sancta et Orthodoxa.

It is no longer sufficient to unite the divided Christendom, now the »Christian« ecumenism tends to usher into a syncretic »World Religion« of Apostasy.

The Author especially points out to the assault and invasion against Christianity coming from Hinduism, Zen Buddhism, as well as from the deceptive »signs of Heaven« — like the »Unidentified Flying Objects /UFOs/ and the »Charismatic Revival« Movement.

The Author was an American Protestant by birth and education, later converted to Hinduism, and — after a long wandering astray — he has returned to the House of the Father: the Orthodox Catholic Church.
